The World's Convention.

Robert Owen's "World's Convention" has at length terminated its sittings, after adopting the following resolutions, with only one dissenting voice:

1st. That the World's Convention has been called digested and matured scientific plan of society; calculated to solve the great problem of the age, "How the superabundant materials and power now at the control of society may be applied to produce permanent prosperity, and superior conduct in each for the venience or evil to existing arrangements, in order to relieve society from the ignorance, poverty, divis- lows : ion, crimes and misery with which the population in all countries are now severely afflicted."

2. That with this extended view it became necess- 1842 " sary to admit to a fair and full investigation whatever plans were presented to the Convention, that the Decrease 539,421 276,577 10 " public might have an opportunity to ascertain the progress which has been made towards the attainment of this the most important object which can now cent, the duty remaining the same. The other "Democratic" paper that was to be started at Indianapolis by Morrison and Covington, it is thought, will never be started. The exposure by the Sentinel of its editors and friends, have caused a pause. Whether the charges made by the Chapmans are true or not, we pretend not to say, but if the new editors now back out, the people will be apt to think there is some truth in what has been said and published by the editors of the Sentinel.
